

Form 8872 – Report of Contributions and Expenditures

2003 Filing Dates

A tax-exempt political organization, other than qualified state and local political organizations, that files Form 8871, must also file Form 8872.

During a non-election year, a political organization has the option of filing on either a monthly or semi-annual schedule. It must file monthly reports beginning with the first month of the year in which it accepts a contribution or makes an expenditure. The organization must continue on the same filing schedule for the entire calendar year.
